September - December 2017

In anticipation of HAAM’s Haitian Art Book Reception Date to be announced
Hosted by Massasoit Community College in collaboration with Brockton Arts & In Sight Gallery

The Haitian Artists Assembly of Massachusetts, a network of over 60 artists, was created in January 1995. Its main goals are to foster creativity, learning opportunities, skills building and fellowship among its members, while promoting Haitian art and culture through various cultural events.